Hierarchy of Angels

This list was first drawn up by Dionysius the Areopagite around about 500 A.D.

Seraphim - The highest order of Angels that surround the throne of the Creator, the Source, God. They have perfect and total understanding of the Creator. They represent complete love, peace, contemplation and perennial love. We as humans very rarely see or experience the seraphim, but they can change their subtle energy in order to communicate with us.

Cherubim - Second in rank, the cherubim is known as the guardians of the light and stars and also as the Divine record keepers. They stand guard over the Akashic Records. When we are looking for deep and far-reaching spiritual knowledge, the Cherubims will step in. They assist with the most important jobs on Earth, such as the Annunciation of Christ, which was carried out by Cherubim.

Thrones - They are also known as the Ophanim. They represent complete wisdom. The Throne's characteristics are peace and obedience. They act to bring God's wishes and wisdom to other angels in the hierarchy and humans. Thrones also look after the planets in the Universe.

Dominions - Also known as dominations, kuriotetes, hashmallim and lords. They take their orders from the Cherubim and Seraphim and oversee the angelic beings below them. They are very rarely seen by us humans, preferring to quietly insure that the cosmos and existence, as we know it, is in perfect order.

Virtues -Also known as Malakim. Divine beings who grant courage and strength to those bring spiritual light to the earth.

They perform the tasks issued by the Dominations. The Virtue's two main jobs are to maintain all element of the natural world, and to grant blessings and miracles upon the material world. At this present time they are sending massive rays of light to Earth to help with the changes taking place at this special time.

Powers - They stand guard between Heaven and Earth – one of the most critical jobs. Powers are on constant patrol watching the forces of darkness, both on the earth and spiritual realms. They also make sure that souls which leave the physical plane reach heaven safely.

Principalties - They guide and protect religion, cities, towns, and politics and watch over the actions and karma of human beings. They are also assigned with the task of organizing and managing the duties of the angels.

Archangels - Archangels are in charge of heaven's armies and are the facilitators of communication between humankind and God. Archangels are the supervisors of guardian angels and they are in charge of waking all humankind to the wisdom and light of God, the Source, and the Creator.

Angels - These Divine beings are the closest to the material world. Angels act as holy messengers between us and God. They take our prayers and requests to God and return with the answers. Angels protect, guard and look after us in any way they can. They are the Divine being most likely to appear to us.

What are Angels?

The word angel comes from the Greek word “angelos”, which means messenger. The Holy Bible says that God appointed many angels to those who love God and call to Him.

Psalms 91:11-For He will command His angels concerning you, to guard you in all your ways.

Angels are Spirit's messengers, celestial beings that act as an intermediary between the spiritual planes and the earth plane. They link us with the Divine. There are the personification of the concept of holiness, a force of light, all working for the Divine. The Angels are the Light of Truth, Wisdom, and guidance. They are kind, loving and help you to manifest goodness and all that serves your highest and best good.

The angels are spiritual beings who live in another plane or dimension of existence known as the Heavenly or Spiritual Dimensions. Their role is a messenger for the Divine for the good of humankind. They are a spiritual, divine being, a light shining truth, a spiritual entity helping humanity, a winged messenger.

They work for the Divine, providing truth , wisdom, guidance and unconditional love. They operate or vibrate at a higher spiritual energy than we humans. They are luminous and close to the Divine, deliverers of the Divine's messages. They come to give us those messages from the Divine to assist us on our path of purpose.

Another belief is that an angel is an individual who has never walked on Earth and exists in the higher spiritual realms. This figure is a higher being that has come to offer comfort, healing and advice. Some believe that these loving messengers of the Divine are an extension of us in a higher form of consciousness.

What are archangels?

There are traditionally seven archangels that are higher forms of angels and act for important events or deliver messages of importance. Working with a specific archangel will focus on a specific energy of life aspect which can be very rewarding.

What are guardian angels?

It is believed that we are each born with 3-4 guardian angels. It is the role of our guardian angels to love us, guide us on our life's path and to assist our understanding of greater spiritual awareness. Our guardian angels love us unconditionally, as well as deliver messages and protect us against danger. Our guardian angels may even be one of our spirit guides.

How can angels help you?

Angels will not intervene in our life path unless we call upon them for assistance in our life. They are available to heal the Earth plane and our lives. The more we contact them asking for their Divine assistance, the easier it will be to communicate, receive clear guidance and the stronger our relationship to them will be.

The angels can see things much clearer than we can. They can look into the past, present and future. Whenever we have challenges or stumbling blocks on our path there are there to help us. They will pick us up with their gentle wings and not allow us to fall down. They will protect and shield us from danger. At times when danger is imminent, an angel is there to warn us, to protect us and keep us safe. There is always an angel by our side.

They are an ever present help in our times of need. They inspire us to reach for a higher level of love, peace, harmony and align ourselves with the Divine. Angels bring us peace and comfort. When they reach out to us, we feel the Divine within us. Angels are there for us when we feel alone. Angels are there when there is no one to reach out to. In those moments the Angels give us comfort and solace.

How do You Communicate and Connect with the Angels?

Angels are available to help you always, at this moment, and in each moment. All you have to do is call upon the Angels for help and they will answer you without tarry or delay. You can invoke the assistance of the Angels by creating an invocation or prayer, or time of meditation, to call on the Angels for the guidance or assistance that you need. As you do so you open yourself to the Highest receptivity available to you.

The more open you are to the Angels the more they will be able to help you. As you contact your Angels know that you can ask the Angels about anything, any challenge, problem, worry, or fear that you are experiencing. What is most important is your intention for contacting them. Make sure your intention is clear. You can give them any intention you have for your life for they are capable of helping you to manifest your hearts desires.

Simply release the outcome Angels. Remain open to the many ways they will answer you. When you ask for Angelic Assistance be sure that you take notice of any feelings or sensations you get, as well as any images, sounds, or thoughts that come to you. These could be your angels trying to reach you.

Angels may answer you in a variety of ways. Some may answer you through a whisper, intuitive knowing, idea or thought, or perhaps through an experience with an animal or nature like a visit from a hummingbird or butterfly or bird taking flight. It serves your highest good to be on the look out for any signs, thoughts, feelings, impressions or sounds that come to you, as these may be the answers from the Angels that you have been waiting on.

There are many other ways that your Angels may communicate with you. They often communicate through your dreams, or coincidences or synchronicities, thoughts, ideas, inspirations, signs in nature (such as birds or butterflies), through books, specific songs, number sequences, strangers or even people you know. What is most important to Angelic Communication is that you keep yourself receptive, having an open mind so that you are successful at finding the answer.

Remember that the Angels are your closest friends. Although you may not be able to always see them know that they are always with you. Invoke them as often as you would like to as they exist to help you. You are always in their company. They are always with you. They guide, protect and shield you at all times. They will not hold back helping you to gain knowledge, insight, protection, guidance, emotional support, comfort and more.

We are all worthy of the love and assistance of the Angels. It is important to accept and affirm your worthiness of Angelic Assistance. Remember that the angels love us all. They will work with you no matter what you have done in the past or what beliefs you have. They are luminous, omnipresent beings of infinite light and love and they long to hear from you, to help you.

They exist in the Spiritual Dimensions beyond our experience of time and space and will respond to your calls for help with complete unconditional love. Recognize the Angels as the loving, trustworthy, Gifts of the Divine to you for as you reflect upon this truth you will help to manifest more inner openness and receptivity to the Angels.

As you receive assistance from the Angelic Kingdom be sure to express thanks for all of their guidance, assistance, love, and support. As you express your appreciation for their divine assistance you will deepen your levels of awareness to the presence of their pure and unconditional love. You will experience their pure and infinite love for you. Know that your invocations and prayers will be answered.

Your angels celebrate every moment that you connect with them. They want you to call on them for any reason or situation, big or small. There is no situation that is too big or too small for the Angels. The Angels appreciate the opportunity to work with you. Through invoking the assistance of your angels you will find that they will prove their existence to you many times over.

As you embark on a relationship with your Angels, know that this relationship is formed over time, just like any relationship on earth. The relationship is a growing one. As you grow this relationship with your Angels your life will become better in every way and you will see before you many miracles unfold.

The Angels know you authentically and love you unconditionally. Whatever serves your highest good will always be given unto you. As the Angels guide you be sure to act upon their guidance. Their help is limitless, infinite, and available always. It replenishes as needed. It delights the Angels to give to you without any limitations.

Using the Angel Activations

For the purpose of sending these activations to others you will be using the intention method. The statement of intention that you use can be worded in any manner that you feel comfortable with as long as it is specific. All you need to include in your intention statement is that you want to activate the Angel Activation of your choice and it will activate automatically.

If you are sending one of the activations to another person you could simply state, “I am now activating the Angel Journey Emerging Light Activation for _____ (person’s name).”

If you are activating the energies for yourself you could simply state, “I would like to activate the Angel Journey Emerging Light Activation now.”

How often should you receive the Angel Journey Activations?

You can activate these energies as often as you need to do so.

For example, if you are struggling with not being able to receive clear communications from your angels you may want to activate Angel Spirit Journey Angelic Communication Activation every day until you receive clear communications.

Trust your intuition on this and check with your Guidance and Angels. You can trust your impressions as you are your own Teacher. If you are having multiple problems you can activate multiple ones or all of them if you need to.

Angel Journey Activations Attunements

You can attune your students to these activations so that they can pass these onto others. You can use any method you are comfortable with using. You can send the attunements remotely or in person.

If you send the attunements by intention all you have to do is state, “I am now sending the attunement to Angel Journey _____ (name of Activation) to _____ (student’s name) for their Highest Good.” The student accepting the attunement would simply state, “I am now receiving the attunement to Angel Journey _____ (name of Activation) Activation for my Highest Good.”

Then the student can simply relax and allow the energies to flow. It will take approximately 30 minutes to receive each activation. The activations should be received individually rather than in one big attunement. It is recommended that you receive one attunement per day for seven days but also trust your intuition and check with your guidance if you choose more than one attunement per day.

May you experience the unconditional love that your Angels have for you so that you can find the healing and safety that you have been searching for in this life. May you open yourself to the Angels pure energy of love and light so that they can reveal to you the beauty of your true, Divine self and help you find the place of peace and love within you. May the Angels show you the way to your own healing so that you can live in a state of grace basking in the Sunlight of Spirit now and forevermore.
